

Reference population: equal probability per interval, uniform within each interval. Gray marks unsupported inputs.

The original 120-point grid includes opposite labels at the shared endpoints $x = -3$ and $x = 2.5$; these have zero population mass.